

Foreign Aid Isn't Just About Helping Foreign People

Source: Tulsa World

I am a solid believer in keeping America's businesses strong and growing—particularly here in Oklahoma. I founded Trécé, Inc., in Salinas, California, in 1984 and expanded the company there for 18 years. I could have grown my company — which develops, manufactures and sells state-of-the-art insect monitoring and control systems — anywhere in the country.